The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 10, to Saturday June 14, 1800.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common-Council aſſembled, with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne to expreſs our honeſt Indignation at the late atrocious and daring Attempt made upon your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majeſty upon your providential Eſcape from ſo imminent a Danger.

May your Majeſty be graciouſly pleaſed to accept this humble Tribute of our Duty, Attachment, and Affection, and may the ſame Divine Providence, by whoſe merciful Interpoſition your Majeſty has eſcaped ſuch great Danger, ſtill continue to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear and valuable to all your Subjects, and to none more than to your faithful Citizens of Dublin.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of ſaid City to be hereunto affixed the Twenty-third Day of May, in the Fortieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Portrieve, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Fore, in the County of Weſtmeath.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portrieve, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Fore, beg Leave in all Humility to tranſmit to your Majeſty our moſt heartfull and ſincere Congratulations upon your happy and providential Preſervation againſt the late wicked and traitorous Attempt that has been made upon your moſt ſacred and invaluable Life.

Unalterably attached as we are to your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Perſon and Family, looking up to your Majeſty as we do in all Sincerity, as the benign and moſt gracious Father and Ruler of your People, and moſt thankful as we are for the great and many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, we contemplate with Horror not to be expreſſed, and with Sentiments of Regret beyond our Power of Utterance, that any Human Creature has been found in your Dominions ſo depraved and ſo wicked as to have raiſed his Arm againſt your Majeſty's Life; but in Proportion as we feel Deteſtation of ſo dreadful a Crime, we moſt humbly and ſincerely acknowledge our Obligations to Almighty God for his moſt ſignal and providential Preſervation of your Majeſty againſt the horrible and atrocious Attempt.

And it is our moſt earneſt Supplication to the Throne of God that the ſame Providence may in Kindneſs to your Majeſty's loyal and faithful People long continue to guard your ſacred Perſon, and to prolong your auſpicious Reign which has been the Source of the Bleſſings we enjoy, and is adorned by every Virtue that can add Luſtre to your Majeſty's great and moſt exalted Situation.

By Order of the Corporation,
John Pollock, Portrieve of the Borough and Corporation of Fore.
R. Anneſley, Recorder.

And we pray to Almighty God to crown your Majeſty's preſent Exertions in Favor of the Liberties of Mankind with Succeſs, to diſappoint the Machinations of foreign Foes and domeſtic Traitors, and to grant that you may long reign over a free and happy People.

Signed in the Name and at the Requeſt of the Noblemen, Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin.

John White, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough and Corporation of Bleſſington, in the County of Wicklow.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Freemen of the Borough of Bleſſington, embrace the earlieſt Opportunity of laying before your Majeſty their humble but moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your Preſervation from the dreadful and moſt wicked Attempt that has been lately made againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Life and Perſon.

We moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to believe that our Feelings of Horror and Diſmay at hearing of ſuch atrocious an Attempt could only be exceeded by the Happineſs we experienced at being informed of your Majeſty's Safety, and the ſincerity of our Acknowledgments to Almighty God for his ſignal and providential Preſervation of your moſt ſacred Majeſty from the Arm of the Aſſaſſin.

May the ſame Almighty Providence long continue its peculiar Care and Protection over your Majeſty's moſt invaluable Life, and preſerve your happy and auſpicious Reign over a grateful and loyal People whoſe Hearts are impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Loyalty and Affection for your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Perſon and Family, and with the moſt profound Veneration for all thoſe Virtues of which your Majeſty's Life has invariably exhibited the brighteſt Example.

By Order of the Corporation,

Richard Hornidge, Sovereign.
Hill Benſon, Recorder.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Kilkenny.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of Kilkenny, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt warm Congratulations on your recent Eſcape from the frantic Attack of an Aſſaſſin.

Impreſſed with the deepeſt Horror at the diſaſtrous Conſequences that might have followed ſo deſperate an Attempt, we mix our Prayers with our Acknowledgments to the Divine Mercy that the ſame Providence which has ſo ſignally ſheltered your Majeſty's invaluable Life, may continue his Divine Protection for the Happineſs of all your People.

Any Circumſtance that awakens our Apprehenſions that your Majeſty's Kingdoms may be bereft of your gracious Superintendance, ſerves only to excite our additional Admiration of your exalted Virtues, and whilſt it reminds us of the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your auſpicious Reign, it increaſes our Attachment to your ſacred Perſon, and redoubles our Solicitude for your Safety.

W. P. Blunden, Mayor.

To His Excellency CHARLES MARQUIS CORNWALLIS, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Roman Catholic Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, &c.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Roman Catholics of Ireland, humbly preſume to approach your Excellency with our ſincereſt Congratulations on His Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt lately made againſt his ſacred Perſon.

We at the ſame Time beg Leave to preſent to your Excellency our humble and dutiful Addreſs to our beloved Sovereign upon this ſignal Occaſion, and humbly requeſt your Excellency will pleaſe to tranſmit the ſame to His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave humbly to expreſs to your Majeſty the Horror we feel at the late atrocious and treaſonable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to acknowledge with fervent Gratitude the merciful Interpoſition of Divine Providence in preſerving your Majeſty from ſo great a Danger, and our Country from an irreparable Calamity.

Enjoying in common with every Deſcription of our Fellow-ſubjects the Bleſſings of that juſt and mild Government, which, directed by your Majeſty's paternal Wiſdom and Affection, and ſtrengthened by that Veneration which your Royal Virtues inſpire, has effectually guarded the Freedom, the Religion, and the Proſperity of the Empire, even at the preſent awful Period of Terror and Innovation; we muſt partake the general Joy at your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from ſuch imminent Peril; but permit us, illuſtrious Sire, to add, that we have peculiar Motives to enliven our Gratitude and Exultation; your Majeſty's Zeal for the Intereſts of Literature and Religion has been teſtified by ſuch diſtinguiſhed Inſtances of Attention and Beneficence to that Univerſity to which we belong, as can never be effaced from our Recollection, and which at this intereſting Moment recur with reſiſtleſs Force.

We conclude with our ſincere and humble Prayers that the ſame Divine Providence which has been ſo repeatedly conſpicuous in the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, may ſtill continue its gracious and Almighty Protection, and that after having bleſſed your Majeſty with a long and happy Reign over a grateful and united People, it may tranſmit your Royal Virtues, together with your Crown, to your Majeſty's Deſcendants, and preſerve them with undiminiſhed Luſtre to the lateſt Poſterity.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of His Majeſty's loyal Subjects the Roman Catholics of Ireland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Roman Catholics of Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of profound Reſpect, and to offer at the Foot of your Throne our heartfelt Congratulations on the providential Eſcape of your Majeſty from the flagitious Attempt lately made on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty that, turning with Horror and Deteſtation from the atrocious Deed which ſo threatened the Life of a beloved Monarch, we contemplate with Senſations of unfeigned Joy the gracious Interpoſition of Divine Providence that has, in ſo ſignal a Manner, preſerved to us the Common Father of all his People.

Our peculiar Situation, as it conſtantly reminds us of the important Benefits we have derived from the Legiſlature, through your Majeſty's gracious Recommendation, ſo it adds to the grateful Acknowledgments we feel, and to the Earneſtneſs and Fervour with which we beſeech the Supreme Ruler, in whoſe Hands are the Lives of Princes, to ſtretch forth His Almighty Arm for the Protection of your Royal Perſon, to preſerve you from all Enemies, and to grant to your Majeſty a long and happy Series of Years.

St. James's, June 11, 1800.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Reſt of your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the Reſt of your Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's late providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt of an Aſſaſſin.

Sire! the Blow which was aimed at your Majeſty's Life ſtruck at the Heart of every Britiſh Subject. An united People raiſe their Voice in Thanks and Adoration to Almighty God for this great and ſignal Mark of Divine Favor, in preſerving to them their beloved Sovereign and common Father.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign over a zealous, happy, and loyal People.

By Order of Court,
Edward Groſe Smith, Clerk.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs, and for your affectionate Expreſſions of Attachment to My Perſon and Government.

The multiplied Proofs I have received on this Occaſion of the warm and ſteady Loyalty of all Deſcriptions of My Subjects, afford Me the moſt ſincere Satisfaction, their Happineſs and Welfare has always been the Object of my Care; and I am perſuaded that the beſt Return I can make for the merciful Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchſafed to Me, will be to continue My Endeavours to promote their Intereſts to the utmoſt of my Power.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and affectionate Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacon and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Chicheſter, humbly approach your Royal Perſon with ſincereſt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the atrocious and deteſtable Attempt of a vile Aſſaſſin.

With Hearts deeply affected by this freſh Mark of Providential Interpoſition, we offer up to the Almighty our bounden Tribute of Gratitude, for the Preſervation of your Majeſty's moſt eſtimable Life; a Life rendered, by its public and private Virtues, highly intereſting to all the virtuous and well-deſerving in the Community; and moſt truly dear to every Lover of Order and Liberty, to every Friend of Religion and his Country.

Long, Gracious Monarch, may the All-powerful Hand of Heaven keep you among your loving and beloved People! Long may your Majeſty reign in Health and Self-enjoyment, a Comfort to your auguſt Family, a Bleſſing to your Imperial Kingdom.

[Preſented by the Biſhop of Chicheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean, and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Hereford, humbly beg Leave to concur with our loyal fellow Subjects, in expreſſing to your Majeſty our Alarm at the late diabolical Attempt upon your Life, ſo eſſential to our Happineſs, private and public, and ſo intereſting to every regular Government in Europe.

We lament moſt earneſtly, that neither your Majeſty's Benignity of Heart, though univerſally conſpicuous, nor that known Magnanimity, which naturally excites Sympathy in an Hour of Diſtreſs, nor the conjugal and filial Anxieties near your Perſon, nor the general Horror which muſt be expected to pervade your Dominions, deterred a malignant Mind from ſo daring a Deſign.

But the Times, which have exhibited to us Inhumanity in various Shapes, had reſerved this ſingu-lar Inſtance, from which, we congratulate your Majeſty, that Almighty God hath been pleaſed to protect your precious Life; and we devoutly wiſh and pray, that his Divine Providence may graciouſly continue that Protection to ſome diſtant Period, when Aſſaſſinations ſhall be extinct, and when your Majeſty, weary of Royal Cares, ſhall leave to your happy Deſcendants the Bleſſings of a proſperous Kingdom, to which limited Monarchy will be completely endeared, by the long exerciſe of it under your benevolent Reign.

[Preſented by the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Archdeacon and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

WE, the Biſhop, the Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, humbly beſeech your Majeſty, graciouſly to accept this our ſincere Tender of Loyalty and Affection, and to credit this our ſolemn Declaration of our utmoſt Abhorrence of every Attempt to injure your Majeſty's Perſons: we well know that your Majeſty's Perſon is rendered ſacred by the Law of the Land; and we know too, that it is endeared to us and to all the Inhabitants of the Land, by the Equity of your Government.

Senſible of the Bleſſings derived to us from the free Conſtitution of this great Country, (the Envy of ſurrounding Nations! the European Bulwark of civil Liberty and of civilized Life!) we feel an Indignation, not to be expreſſed, againſt thoſe who, ſecretly or openly, endeavour to rob us of this Treaſure: knowing Monarchy to be an eſſential Part of this Conſtitution, we look upon every Injury offered to the State, Dignity, and Perſon of our King, as a Blow aimed at the Happineſs of ourſelves and our Poſterity. That this is not the ſlaviſh Language of individual Adulation, but the juſt Expreſſion of the general Sentiment of an enlightened People, may be inferred from the Zeal ſo recently ſhewn by Men of all Ranks, and of all Parties, in ſupporting your Majeſty's Throne againſt the arrogant Menacies of foreign, and the inſidious Deſigns of domeſtic Enemies.

May that Almighty Being, who preſerved Saint Paul, when more than Forty Men had conſpired to ſlay him, continue to preſerve your Majeſty's Life from all Danger; He alone is able to ſave; in Him alone your Majeſty's Piety, we are perſuaded, will prompt you to put your Truſt; and to Him, we are perſuaded, a Nation's Duty and a Nation's Love will prompt every good Man to direct his fervent Supplication that you may never truſt in vain.

[Preſented by the Duke of Portland.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, Inhabitants and Viſitors of the City of Bath, deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of the Duty we owe, and of Gratitude to your mild Government and paternal Regard, deſire to expreſs, in common with the Reſt of our Countrymen, our deepeſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late execrable Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your happy Deliverance from the Danger of ſo daring an Outrage.

In the Midſt of our Concern, that ſuch a Stain on the Annals of our Country ſhould be tranſmitted to Poſterity, we feel Satisfaction in having an Opportunity of declaring our Veneration and Regard for your Majeſty's Perſon, which Sentiments are enhanced by your diſtinguiſhed Magnanimity on the late trying Occaſion.

And we further aſſure your Majeſty, that we acknowledge, with Gratitude, our firm Perſuaſion, that your Safety, Proſperity, and Happineſs, are moſt intimately connected with our own; and that we moſt ſincerely implore the Almighty that the ſame Gracious Providence which has hitherto protected would continue to guard your Majeſty, and long preſerve a Life ſo juſtly endeared to us by every Tie which Duty, Reſpect, and Affection can command.

[Preſented by William Falconer, M. D.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Inhabitants of the City of Exeter.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, humbly approach the Throne, to expreſs our awful Senſe of Gratitude to that Divine Providence, which has once more ſhielded your Majeſty's Perſon from Aſſaſſination, and preſerved the kindeſt Father of an affectionate People.

Moſt ardently do we congratulate your Majeſty, that theſe abortive Efforts of Treaſon only furniſh new Occaſions to prove to your Majeſty the enthuſiaſtic Love and Loyalty of a faithful and highly favored Nation.

[Preſented by Sir Charles Bamfylde, Bart. and John Baring, Eſq; Members for the City.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, humbly preſent to your Majeſty our moſt affectionate Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the recent moſt daring and criminal Attack ſo immediately directed againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred and valuable Life.

In contemplating this Calamity the firſt Impreſſion on our Minds muſt be that we are called by a juſt and honorable Senſe of our Allegiance, Love, and Affection to your Majeſty, and by a general and patriotic Regard for the Intereſts of our Countrymen and the Kingdom at large, to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation at one of the moſt atrocious Attacks as well againſt the Life of a Sovereign poſſeſſing the moſt ſplendid perſonal Virtues, as againſt the vital Principles of the State, in the Perſon of your Majeſty.

We moſt cordially acquieſce in the general Sentiment which pervades the Nation at large, and join in their earneſt Exhortation and Prayer not only to puniſh the Outrage committed, but to prevent, as far as human Foreſight and Energy can ſerve, the Perpetration of ſuch wicked and deteſtable Deſigns in future.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that deeply impreſſed with the Value of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, we are determined to defend with Reſolution and Vigour the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown, the Safety and Welfare of our Country, and the Exiſtence of good Order and civil Society.

[Preſented by Lord Bulkeley, Lord Newburgh, and Edward Griffith, Eſq.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Durham.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the City of Durham, moſt humbly offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt happy and providential Eſcape from the late atrocious and daring Attempt againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon.

Permit us, Sire, on this moſt intereſting Occaſion, to repeat our Aſſurances of fervent Attachment to your Majeſty, your Family, and to our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and to expreſs our Readineſs to defend your Majeſty againſt the Attempt of both foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

That your Majeſty may long continue to experience the diſtinguiſhed Protection of Divine Providence:

That your private Life may be marked by increaſing Happineſs, and your Reign be proſperous and glorious:

Such is the ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed at the Requeſt, and on Behalf of the Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants, the Twenty-ninth Day of May One Thouſand Eight Hundred.

John James, Mayor and Chairman.

[Preſented by Mr. Lambton and Mr. Taylor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Lincoln, beg leave humbly to approach your Majeſty, to expreſs the Abhorrence with which we view the late execrable Attempt upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our joyful Congratulations, with that Sincerity and Fervency we cannot but feel on ſo great and ſo providential an Eſcape.

If by our individual Exertions, in common with the whole Body of our Fellow Subjects, we could avert any open Attack made upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, or upon our juſtly valued Conſtitution, we might with a perfect Confidence congratulate your Majeſty on the Unanimity with which a grateful People would zealouſly preſs forward in ſuch a Cauſe. But ſenſible of the Inſufficiency of all human Power to guard againſt the dark Intrigues of the unprincipled Anarchiſt, or the ſudden Attack of the deluded or deſperate Aſſaſſin; we have witneſſed with the warmeſt Gratitude this ſignal Interpoſition of Divine Providence, by which a Sovereign ſo dear to theſe Realms is ſtill preſerved.

Whilſt we addreſs your Majeſty in Terms of Congratulation on the Paſt, we cannot avoid expreſſing, what our Inclination, no leſs than our Duty, dictates to us, our moſt fervent Prayers for the future Safety of that Life, the Preſervation of which we muſt ever acknowledge as a Bleſſing of inеſtimable Value. Ancaſter and Keſteven, Lord Lieutenant.

[Preſented by Robert Vyner, Eſq; and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart. attended by Mr. Harriſon, Lord Brownlow, Colonel Sibthorpe, Lieutenant-General Bertie, Lord Yarborough, Sir Richard Sutton, Mr. Elliſon, Sir Joſeph Banks.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave to lay at your Majeſty's Feet our unfeigned Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from the atrocious and treaſonable Attack made on your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life.

Duly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's benign and paternal Government, and of the Benefits derived from the Example of thoſe Virtues which grace your Majeſty's Character, and profoundly admiring the dignified Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Mind in this Moment of ſevereſt Trial, we are impreſſed with the ſtrongeſt Emotions of Gratitude to the Almighty Being, whoſe Interpoſition has been ſo ſignally manifeſted on this Occaſion; and we make it our fervent Prayer, that the ſame kind Providence will continue to preſerve a Life ſo juſtly dear to the Heart of every loyal Briton.

[Preſented by Henry Proctor, Eſq; Sheriff, Charles Williams Wynne, Eſq; one of the Members, and Sir W. W. Wynne, Bart.]

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty to expreſs the Horror and Indignation which we feel in common with all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects at the late atrocious and treaſonable Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

It is with the moſt heartfelt Gratitude to that Providence which has ſo often preſerved our Country from the greateſt Dangers that we offer up our unanimous Congratulations to your Majeſty, to the Britiſh Nation, and to all Europe, on your Majeſty's happy Deliverance from a Danger ſo imminent and unexpected.

We look to the Preſervation of your Majeſty's invaluable Life as to that of the Father and Friend of his People.

We are bound to your Majeſty by every Tie that can endear a Prince to his Subjects; by the long

166

Experience of a mild and beneficent Government; and by our Admiration of thoſe Qualities which at once dignify the Character of the Sovereign and the Man; and eſpecially of that Firmneſs of Mind which is the Characteriſtic of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, and the ſureſt Pledge of the Safety of your People in critical and dangerous Times.

Signed for and by the Deſire of the Nobility, Gentry, Yeomanry, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge.

Richard Hetley, Sheriff.

[Preſented by the Sheriff, attended by Lord Hardwicke, Lord Lieutenant, General Adeane and Mr. Yorke.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the County of Rutland, ſenſibly impreſſed by Sentiments of the moſt lively Concern for your Majeſty's Proſperity and Welfare, humbly beg Leave to offer our moſt unfeigned Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential and happy Eſcape from the wicked and atrocious Attack to which your ſacred Life has lately been expoſed.

We cannot reflect on this Attempt without the utmoſt Horror and Conſternation; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Firm and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and we acknowledge, with due Gratitude and Reverence, that the ſole Objects of your Majeſty's Care are to promote the Happineſs and Proſperity of your People, and to preſerve, inviolate, our moſt excellent Conſtitution. John Heycock, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by Gerard Noel Noel, Eſq; and Sir William Lowther, Bart. Members for the County.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Angleſey, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty to expreſs, with the utmoſt Indignation, our Abhorrence of the late atrocious and treaſonable Attack, by an Aſſaſſin, on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to offer our moſt heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Eſcape from ſo imminent a Danger.

Impreſſed with a full Conviction of the invaluable Bleſſings which theſe Kingdoms enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we acknowledge, with all Humility and Gratitude, the Interpoſition of the Almighty, ſo ſignally manifeſted on this Occaſion; and we ſhall offer up our moſt fervent Prayers to Him, that His Providence may continue to watch over and long preſerve a Life ſo dear to your Majeſty's Subjects. William Hervey, High Sheriff.

[Preſented by Mr. Hervey, High Sheriff, and Earl of Uxbridge, Lord Lieutenant.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Councillors of your Majeſty's Royal Borough of Kircudbright, impreſſed with the moſt lively Senſe of the national Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's benign and paternal Government, and ſtruck with Horror and Indignation at the late moſt atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne, offering our ſincere and moſt cordial Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the deſperate Hand of a daring and flagitious Aſſaſſin.

With pious Gratitude we acknowledge the merciful Interpoſition of Divine Providence in your Majeſty's Favour, and we earneſtly pray that the ſame wiſe and good Providence may continue to guard and preſerve your Majeſty's Life, ſo eſſential to the Happineſs of a loyal and affectionate People.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leiceſter, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the daring and atrocious Attempt againſt your Royal Perſon, and our ſincere Congratulation on your Majeſty's Eſcape from ſo imminent a Danger.

We contemplate with Admiration the calm Intrepidity which diſtinguiſhed your Majeſty in that Moment of ſudden Alarm, and we are happy to acknowledge, that by this Diſplay of your Majeſty's Firmneſs many Lives were undoubtedly ſaved.

With ſincere Gratitude to the Almighty we join with the general Voice in offering our Prayers for the Preſervation of a Perſon ſo neceſſary to the Happineſs of this Nation, and we earneſtly implore the Continuation of your Majeſty's Life that we may long enjoy the Bleſſings ariſing from your juſt and mild Government.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Royal Burgh of Banff, in Council aſſembled, humbly preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late wicked and atrocious Attempt on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

The more we reflect on the incalculable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and on the reiterated Proofs of your Majeſty's unremitted Solicitude for the beſt Intereſts of your Subjects, with the more Horror do we recoil from, with the more Indignation and Aſtoniſhment do we contemplate the Enormity of the diabolical Attack on a Sovereign whoſe whole Life has been an uninterrupted Series of the moſt affectionate and diffuſive Benevolence to his People.

We renew to your moſt gracious Majeſty our Aſſurances of our Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and our zealous and faithful Attachment to our moſt excellent Conſtitution; and it is our fervent Prayer that the Divine Providence may continue to preſerve your Majeſty's moſt valuable Life both againſt the audacious Attempts of foreign Enemies, and the ſecret Machinations of domeſtic Treaſon.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Truro, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty's Throne with our heartieſt Congratulations on your Eſcape from the traitorous Attempt lately made againſt your Majeſty's Life; an Attempt the Relation of which no Ear has heard but with Horror, nor Heart felt without Deteſtation. The Infamy of a Crime ſo monſtrous we want Words to execrate, and turning from it in Abhorrence, reflect with Admiration on the well-timed Magnanimity and Compoſure diſplayed by your Majeſty before the aſtoniſhed Spectators of the diabolical Act.

Having teſtified our Joy upon your happy Eſcape, we take this Opportunity to expreſs our profound Eſteem and Affection towards your Royal Perſon and Family, and Attachment to our eſtabliſhed Conſtitution and Government, wiſhing to your Majeſty long Life to reign over a loyal Nation and every Bleſſing and Enjoyment it can afford, parti-

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere Congratulations on the merciful Interposition of Providence in protecting your Majesty from the Designs of a vile Assassin, and to express our Horror and Astonishment that any Person could be found wicked enough to attempt the Perpetration of so atrocious a Deed.

Conscious of the innumerable Advantages and inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, and venerating the many Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, we cannot but participate with every good and loyal Subject in the most heartfelt Joy, that the Supreme Disposer of all Events hath averted so dreadful a Calamity from our Country, and unite our most fervent Prayers that it may please the Almighty long to preserve to this favoured Kingdom the Life of a Sovereign so deservedly beloved and so justly termed the Father of his People.

Most Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of Prescot, eager to express our public Testimony of Gratitude to God for his late especial and eminent Protection of your Majesty, humbly beg leave to declare our heartfelt Satisfaction in your Safety. We are truly sensible of the high Value and vast Importance of your Majesty's Life to all your Subjects, and therefore necessarily anxious for its long Continuance must reflect with Horror and the utmost Indignation on the late impious and vile Attempt to shorten it. God hath frequently delivered, and we earnestly hope and trust he ever will defend, from all his latent and public Enemies, his faithful Servant, and our justly beloved Father, King, and Friend.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to express our extreme Indignation at the late wicked and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty and the Country at your Majesty's Escape from so great a Danger. To GEORGE the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

May it please the King,

AMidst the general Satisfaction which thy late Escape from an Attempt on thy Life hath occasioned, permit thy faithful and affectionate Subjects, the religious Society of Friends, usually called Quakers, thus publicly to manifest their thankfulness for thy Preservation.

We have received too many Benefits during thy Reign, too many Marks of thy princely Favor, not to feel greatly interested in thy personal Safety; and we earnestly desire that this providential Deliverance may more and more incline thy Heart to seek the Direction of Divine Wisdom in all thy Steps; for what greater Blessing can we implore for a Prince whom we honor and love, than that he may continually commend himself, and the People over whom he reigns, to the Approbation of the King of Kings.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your affectionate Congratulations on the merciful Favour and Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchsafed to Me.

The repeated Demonstrations of Loyalty and Attachment to My Person and Government which I have received upon the present Occasion are highly acceptable to Me; and you may rely on the Continuance of My unremitting Exertions to promote the Welfare and Happiness of all Descriptions of My Subjects, and to preserve inviolate their civil and religious Privileges.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person to express the Astonishment and Horror with which we have contemplated the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's Life—a Life in various Respects important and estimable, and peculiarly endeared to us by Gratitude for the Confirmation and Increase of those Privileges which we have enjoyed under your Majesty's Reign, and by the pleasing Hope of their uninterrupted Continuance. Whilſt we participate in a very high Degree, the Joy that has been univerſally felt and teſtified on the preſent Occaſion, we have devoutly acknowledged the providential Protection which your Majeſty experienced in the Seaſon of Danger, and the Magnanimity and Self-Poſſeſſion which you were enabled to exerciſe in Circumſtances ſo juſtly alarming not only to yourſelf but to your affectionate Family and to every Britiſh Subject.

Our Gratitude for your Majeſty's Deliverance has been accompanied with fervent Supplications for the unmoleſted Duration of your deſirable Life, and for your protracted Enjoyment of every perſonal, domeſtic, and national Bleſſing.

To your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family we feel an affectionate Attachment derived from our Anceſtors, which, having cheriſhed with peculiar Satisfaction, we ſhall tranſmit, under the Protection and Favor of which we are ambitious not to be thought undeſerving, to our Deſcendants.

At that diſtant Period to which we truſt your Majeſty's Reign will be prolonged, no leſs for the Happineſs of your faithful Subjects of every Deſcription than to your own Honor, may the Crown deſcend, with the Luſtre of your princely Virtues, to your Succeſſor, and continue in your illuſtrious Family to the lateſt Generation.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious Anſwer:

I Thank you for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs; the Declaration of your Attachment to thoſe Principles of Affection which you and your Anceſtors have always profeſſed to My Perſon and Family, muſt ſecure to you the Continuance of My Favour and Protection.

I am perſuaded that I cannot make ſo acceptable a Return for the merciful Protection which the Divine Providence has vouchſafed to Me, as by an unremitting Perſeverance in My Endeavours to maintain the Privileges, and to promote the Happineſs and Welfare of all my Subjects.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Fraternity of Free and Accepted Maſons under the Conſtitution of England.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Danger to which your Majeſty was expoſed in the atrocious Attempt lately made againſt your ſacred Perſon, whilſt it filled the Hearts of all in this Country with Alarm and Abhorrence, has authorized every Claſs of your Subjects to offer at your Throne the Expreſſion of their ardent Attachment without Fear of incurring the Charge of Intruſion.

Vouchſafe, Sire, under this Conſtruction, to admit the Homage of a Deſcription of Men who in any ordinary Circumſtances could not as a Body tender the Profeſſion of that Devotion to your Royal Perſon and to your Government which it is their Boaſt to cheriſh, not in their individual Capacities alone but in their peculiar Aſſociation.

The Law, by permitting, under certain Regulations, the Meetings of Freemaſons, has defined the Exiſtence of the Society; binding, at the ſame Time, the Members of it by a new Obligation of Gratitude for the Confidence extended towards them to labour as far as their feeble Powers may apply in inculcating Loyalty to the King and Reverence to the ineſtimable Fabric of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

Being ſo acknowledged, we ſhould think ourſelves wanting in the firſt Duty towards your Majeſty and towards that Conſtitution, did we not approach your Majeſty with the Teſtimony of our Feelings on this awful Occaſion.

Your Majeſty is, therefore, implored to receive the humble Congratulations of the Grand Lodge of Freemaſons under the Conſtitution of England (the repreſentative Aſſembly of all the Lodges under that Conſtitution) in the Name of themſelves and all of their Brethren, on your having been ſhielded by the Hand of Providence from the deſperate and execrable Attempt of the Aſſaſſin.

When Principles were firſt promulgated in France, which to our Conception tended to the overthrow of all Peace and Order in Society, we felt ourſelves called upon to depart from a Rule which had been till then religiouſly obſerved in our Aſſociation.

As a Veil of Secrecy conceals the Tranſactions at our Meetings, our fellow Subjects have no Aſſurance that there may not be in our Aſſociation a Tendency injurious to their Intereſts, other than the general Tenor of our Conduct, and the Notoriety that the Door of Freemaſonry is not cloſed againſt any Claſs, Profeſſion, or Sect, provided the Individual deſiring Admiſſion be unſtained in moral Character. To remove, therefore, as far as poſſible any Ground for Suſpicion, it has been from Time immemorial a fundamental Rule moſt rigidly maintained, that no political Topic ſhall on any Pretence be mentioned in a Lodge.

The ſingular Juncture to which we have alluded ſeemed to call for ſome poſitive Declaration which might diſtinctly exhibit our Opinions. We thence ventured to profeſs to your Majeſty the Loyalty with which the Freemaſons of England glowed towards your Royal Perſon, and their unalterable Attachment to the preſent happy Form of Government in this Country. But as no Foreſight could deviſe a Motive of equal Importance with that which then actuated us, the recent Occurrence being of a Nature too horrid to be in Suppoſition as a Poſſibility, it was ſtrongly declared that no Precedent ſhould be drawn from that Step; and that on no future Occaſion ſhould the Grand Lodge exerciſe an Advertance to Events which might entail upon Freemaſons the Charge of aſſuming the Privilege to deliberate as a Body upon public Affairs. Hence, Sire, our preſent Addreſs has not been as early as our individual Anxiety would have dictated; for it was requiſite that a general Concurrence ſhould ſanction the Grand Lodge in a ſecond Relaxation of its Rules, before we could jointly expreſs that which we ſeverally felt in the moſt ardent Manner on the ſolemn Subject.

We have poured forth to the Grand Architect of the Univerſe our humble Thankſgiving that, to the other Bleſſings ſhowered on this Country, He has added that of defeating a Crime, the ſole Attempt at which produced univerſal Diſmay throughout theſe Realms; and we earneſtly confide in His Divine Bounty to preſerve to us and to our fellow Subjects for many, very many Years to come, a Life ſo important in its Example and ſo ineſtimable in its Superintendence over our Happineſs as that of your Majeſty.

Given, unanimouſly, in Grand Lodge, at Freemaſons' Hall, this Third Day of June One thouſand eight hundred.
